Like the modern alphabet, runes were the written symbols of our Norse ancestors. Understood only by the very wise, they were used to communicate with others, as well as with the ancient gods.

Odden's Rural Life Tours
2016 MIDSUMMER TOUR TO NORWAY & SWEDEN
Visit Norway and Sweden!
June 16 - 28, 2016

Midsummer Celebration Tour!
Travel with Phillip and Else

Our 2016 Odden's Rural Life Midsummer Celebration Tour to Sweden and Norway is indeed a celebration of midsummer. We will experience the sights, sounds and tastes of midsummer at a time when the sun never sets. Else and Phil have offered this tour in 2014 and 2013. Both times it was very successful and well received. We will be gone 13 days. We will be six days in Norway and seven days in Sweden. The tour will begin in Oslo from the Gardermoen airport. We will fly home from Stockholm.

Odden's Rural Life Tours focus on rural culture. We offer insights into folk arts, music and food culture as well as modern agriculture and rural living.

We look into the era at the time of immigration and learn how people lived at that time in Scandinavia and the possible reasons people immigrated to North America.

The tour includes, for example, such places as Oslo, Gudbrandsdalen, Åndalsnes, Trondheim & Røros in Norway; and Dalarna & Stockholm in Sweden.

For information about this tour, or other Scandinavian tours such as a 2017 tour to Norway, please contact Phil and Else, your hosts, guides and tour organizers at:

VIGELAND SCULPTURE PARK TOPS THE TOURIST LIST

If there's one thing Norwegian tourists do when they are on vacation in Oslo, it is to visit Vigeland Sculpture Park. The sculptures top the list of sights Norwegians have visited in their own country.

These results were shown by a [2014] nationwide survey by TNS Gallup for the Norwegian Hospitality Association. 1,057 Norwegians over 18 were asked about their vacation plans. So again this year, many will pose angrily in front of Sinnataggen—the Spitfire—in a running pose in front of running sculptures and a lifting pose in front of the figures that are lifting.

In addition to Vigeland Park, there are two other attractions from the Oslo region among the top five most-visited: Holmenkollen Ski Jump and Ski Museum and Tusenfryd amusement park just outside the city. The same survey also shows that "everyone" has been to Oslo, and that among those who are taking a summer vacation in their own country this year, most are spending it in the eastern part of Norway.

"It's clear. Oslo is Norway's biggest tourist town," says director of the Norwegian Hospitality Association, Kristin Krohn Devold. She says she is a bit amused when small towns are allowed to have stores open on Sundays because they are tourist towns. It is actually Oslo that most people are visiting. "We have national monuments in this city that everyone wants to experience, such as the Opera. It has become a tourist destination much like Vigeland Park. People mostly aren't going to see an opera, but they want to stroll on the rooftop. And Vigeland Park has become Norway's answer to Central Park. People jog, run, exercise and go for walks. The park is widely used both by those who live there and tourists," she said.

The Norwegian Hospitality Association's vacation survey also shows that Preikestolen (Pulpit Rock) and Nordkapp (The North Cape) are at the very bottom on the list of sights Norwegians have visited. "It probably has a bit to do with where these sites are located. Preikestolen is just outside Stavanger, and many Norwegians may think of Stavanger as more of a business hub than a vacation destination," says Krohn Devold. Preikestolen is by far the most-visited mountain in Norway, much more visited than the Galdhøpiggen and Besseggen. But apparently it is more attractive among foreigners than among Norwegians. The same goes for Nordkapp. "For Norwegians it's probably not a big goal in itself to stand at the northernmost point of Europe. For us it's probably more interesting to travel to Tromsø or Lofoten to have interesting experiences in Northern Norway," says Kristin Krohn Devold.

The Norwegian Hospitality Association's survey also shows that one in four Norwegians have never been in Northern Norway. And the Norwegian Hospitality director thinks this is too bad. "Yes, Norwegians need to wake up. Northern Norway is so amazing. Now it's possible to get cheap flights to several places in Northern Norway, to the airports where there are two competing companies. These include Tromsø, Bodø, Kirkenes and Evenes among others," she says. Kristin Krohn Devold encourages anyone who has not been to Northern Norway before to buy a plane ticket and rent a car to see more of the region.

Norwegians have visited these sights:

- 1) Vigeland Sculpture Park 78%
- 2) Kristiansand Zoo 74%
- 3) Tusenfryd amusement park 71%
- 4) Nidaros Cathedral in Trondheim 70%
- 5) Holmenkollen Ski Jump and Ski Museum 63 %
- 6) Fløibanen, funicular in Bergen 62%
- 7) Hunderfossen Familiepark - amusement park 60%
- 8) Geiranger Fjord 46%
- 9) Vøringsfossen – 500 ft (163 m) waterfall 46%
- 10) Fredriksten festning – fortress in Halden 44%
- 11) Lofoten archipelago 42%
- 12) The National Gallery 42%
- 13) Flåm Line - scenic railway 28%
- 14) Preikestolen – Pulpit Rock 21%
- 15) Nordkapp – The North Cape 21%
- 16) None of these 1%

Norwegians have been to these cities:

- 1) Oslo 98%
- 2) Bergen 89%
- 3) Trondheim 87%
- 4) Drammen 80%
- 5) Kristiansand 84%
- 6) Stavanger 76%
- 7) Fredrikstad 70%
- 8) Tromsø 60%
- 9) Ålesund 59%
- 10) Bodø 53%
- 11) Førde 37%
- 12) Alta 30%

ANECDOTES & SAYINGS ABOUT FRIENDSHIP

Authors Unknown

(Suggested by Reidun Mayer)

Tolstoy, the great Russian author, was meeting a beggar who stopped him and pleaded for alms. Tolstoy looked, but had none. He said, "Don't be angry, my friend, but I have nothing. If I had, I would be glad to share."

The beggar's face got red, and his eyes filled with tears. He said, "You gave me more than I asked for. You called me 'friend'."

A man never likes you so well as when he leaves your company liking himself.

We were never strangers, you and I, only friends yet unfound.

All Members - Please Note

We are in the winter season when it is DANGEROUS to the building to turn off the heat. Please DO NOT EVER TURN OFF the thermostats. Just lower the temperature to 55° & leave the setting on "HEAT" and always leave the fan on "AUTO".

The Lutheran minister was chagrined because the church board denied his request for a chandelier in the church. When pressed for reasons, the chairman explained to the preacher: "Vell, for vun ting --- da secretary can't spell it. For anudder, nobody knows how to play it, so dat would be a waste of money. And anudder ting --- if ve are going to spend any money, it should be for a light over the pulpit so you can see better."
