

Kjære venner;

Soon school starts, harvesting our gardens and fruit trees is in full swing, and Myrmarken meets again in September.

I am sending the September newsletter early to alert you to our September meeting's program. Special guest Leslee Lane Hoyum, a chief executive officer for the Sons of Norway in Minneapolis will talk to us about one or both programs that are special to her: Ski for Light and the Sons of Norway Foundation. Please spread the word to all your Facebook friends and those on your email list so that they can set aside 9am September 9th to come and learn about these valuable branches of the Sons of Norway. This is a wonderful opportunity to tell others about what Sons of Norway has to offer. You may use the article below to spread the word to your friends.

Looking forward to seeing all you on the 9th.

Delegates who are not on a committee can take part in a class or enjoy speakers on Wednesday and Thursday. Everyone will be able to enjoy the evening programs on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday besides the banquet on Saturday evening.

Those who are not delegates can attend all three-and one-half days of their class of choice or learn from the presentations offered during that time or take a local trip.

THERE IS SO MUCH TO DO THAT EVERYONE WILL NEED TO MAKE CHOICES!

Sons of Norway Book Club Selections

Mystery Selection:

American by Day

by Derek B. Miller

Synopsis: A gripping and timely novel that follows Sigrid—the dry-witted detective from Derek B. Miller’s best-selling debut Norwegian by Night—from Oslo to the United States on a quest to find her missing brother.

She knew it was a weird place. She’d heard the stories, seen the movies, read the books. But now police Chief Inspector Sigrid Ødegård has to leave her native Norway and actually go there; to that land across the Atlantic where her missing brother is implicated in the mysterious death of a prominent African American academic—America.

Sigrid is plunged into a United States where race and identity, politics and promise, reverberate in every aspect of daily life. Working with—or, if necessary, against—the police, she must negotiate the local political minefields and navigate the backwoods of the Adirondacks to uncover the truth before events escalate further.

Refreshingly funny, slyly perceptive, American by Day is “a superb novel on all levels” (Times, UK).

“Ingenious. Humorous. Wonderful.”—Lee Child

BEAR BREAKTHROUGH

For 13 years, researchers in Scandinavia have been studying hibernating bears and have drawn some very important conclusions regarding blood clots. Since 2010, they have drawn blood, fat, muscle and urine samples from 70 bears in both the winter and summer. The difference they discovered between samples was changed platelets while the bears were hibernating. This is notable as bears can be still for several months without blood clots, while humans are at risk sitting still for too long. From their studies, they have determined that bears produce less of a protein called HSP47 in winter, which can cause blood to coagulate. These findings are remarkable in that scientists now know which protein to focus on when creating medicines for blood clots. The researchers believe there are more important discoveries to be made from this project and thus will continue to study these hibernating bears.
