Fra Presidenten

Each November, the air turns crisp and the days grow shorter. It is time for warm sweaters and a return to holiday traditions. Thanksgiving is a great time to feel grateful for our many blessings, but it is good to share our blessings. Maybe it is a friendly gesture, a helping hand, or a thoughtful gift. A smallest act of kindness can go a long way to warm someones heart and brighten their day.

Our American Thanksgiving is always celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November. It celebrates how the Pilgrims enjoyed a meal with the Native Americans with thankful hearts for making it through tough times. I think many of our ancestors have similar stories to tell as they adjusted to living in a new country. As Americans gather together with family and friends, we give thanks. Most of us celebrate with a large meal and sometimes a religious service.

I am familiar with the American and Canadian Thanksgiving, but seventeen other countries celebrate with their own version. Traditions may be different, but the underlying sentiment is the same: it's a chance to spend time with friends and family and reflect on what is most important in life.

With a thankful heart, I'm happy to be meeting again with your Wergeland Lodge members! Enjoy the season and stay well.
-Ramona J.

Program for December

"Christmas in Bardu in Troms Fylke"

Sekretær Notater...

MINUTES FROM GENERAL MEETING OCTOBER 7, 2021 RADISSON CENTER

The Wergeland Lodge of Sons of Norway gathered for treats and fellowship at 6 PM at the Radisson Center. The business meeting was called to order at 6:40 by President Ramona Johnson. The Pledge of Allegiance and the three national anthems were sung. Guests were introduced and those celebrating birthdays this month were serenaded.

Ramona announced the charter was draped in memory of Elaine Nelson who was a long time member of our lodge and held many offices and also was a member of District 5 Board. There was one visitor introduced.

The secretary report was not read as it was printed in the Budstikken. Shirley Schoenfeld presented the treasurer report. The foundation cans were passed and Ilene Pavelko introduced Emily Stark, the Sons of Norway Foundation Director, who presented an interesting overview of the recent donations the foundation has presented.

Ramona once again read the list of officers and committee members that are needed for 2022 and asked that people would call her and volunteer for those positions before the next meeting of our lodge. If our lodge is to exist after 2022, we need someone to be vice president next year and become president in 2023. The roster of officers and committees is printed elsewhere in this issue.

Ramona announced we have a sign up sheet for ushering at the community theatre in December and we need six people at each of two performances. Also she asked for sign ups for a trip to the museum in Peterson, Mn, scheduled for October 19th. We will meet in the former Sears parking lot to ride share and visit the museum and then have lunch together in Rushford at the lefse factory. She announced we have the 2022 calendars for sale and that several members have brought along various Norwegian products to sell tonight. The Friendship Gardens committee has asked that Wergeland help replace a troll that has been damaged and that they have raised $800 so far. Donations will be accepted as several trolls will soon need replacement. They are contacting several other lodges in the area for donations also.

The raffle winnings were donated to the scholarship fund as well as Dave Glomstad's bike riding pledges. We thank you very much. Our college age members who receive our scholarships are very appreciative of them. The business meeting was adjourned at 7:30. There were 55 in attendance. Our Program was presented by our members Vivian Sacia and Richard Granum. They recalled their experiences attending and teaching at one room schools.

- Adrian Johnson, Lodge Secretary

Treasurer's Report as of Sept 30:

Checking: $2,407.18 + $335.23 income - $1491.35 Expenses = $1251.06 Balance

Scholarships: $160.50 balance

Savings $19,213.34 Balance

Total in accounts: $20,624.90

So Sven and Ole are walking home from the tavern late at night and they head down the railroad tracks, and Sven says, "This is the longest flight of stairs I ever climbed in my life."

And Ole says, "Yeah, it's not the stairs that bother me so much, it's these low railings."

Til minner om...

...Elaine Nelson (94) passed away September 25, 2021 at her Assisted Living Home. She taught for 34 years in Whitehall, Holmen, and GET school districts. She joined Wergeland Lodge in December of 1989, was a Golden Member (32.5 years), was our President, taking over for Rev. Nelson the first year, and two years afterwards. She had other offices and was an active member who even translated friends' Norwegian letters. Our sympathy to her three children - Jill, Deen, and Leif. She will be missed very much by her SON friends, family, and others. Blessed be her memory.

Tusen takk...

...til Eugene Johnson for bringing his Rømmegrøt to share at the October meeting! Also, Tusen Takk to everyone who participated in our "Mini-Bazaar" sale!

November Program: "Henry Hendrickson: The Blind Broom-maker" by Mike Palecek

Henry's family came to the U.S. on the same ship as Mons Anderson, the "Merchant King" of La Crosse. Henry was a little younger than Mons, and they were lifetime friends.

At one point in his career, he came to La Crosse to seek business guidance from Mons. Being a broom manufacturer in La Crosse was the most successful time of Henry's career.

Mike is President of the Nordlyset Lodge in Racine/Kenosha and Treasurer for SON District 5. He also manages the Nordic programs and classes we have attended on Zoom.

From the October Program: "A Trip Down Memory Lane: The One-Room School"

Vivian Sacia and Richard Granum shared their memories and prompted remembrances from the audience about attending one-room schools. They both attended Maple Shade school and became educators themselves. They reminisced about the duties, teachers, lunches, and lessons in the one-room school.

Kent Sween (below) led the singing of Hils fra mig der Hjemme (A Sailor's Greeting).

Also in attendance at the October meeting was the Sons of Norway Foundation Director, Emily Stark (below, shown with Ilene Pavelko). She gave a summary of the Foundation work for this year, including scholarships and grants. In fact, she encouraged us to consider writing a grant to help with restoring one of the trolls in the Friendship Gardens.

Wedding Bells - Congratulations!

Marissa Langaard and Eric Stoughtenger were married outside at Norskedalen on October 16th. The weather was good, and it was a beautiful place to get married. Many relatives and friends were there from near and far.

Marissa is a SON member, as well as her mother, Karen DeSchepper - Shirley's daughter. Here's a picture from that day.

Although you really can't see the golden locket under Marissa's pretty necklace, she is the 5th generation bride to wear the locket, originally given to her great great grandma Helen (Moen) Maki by her husband Herman on their wedding day, then Alice Lokstad wore it, then Shirley, then Karen, and now Marissa. Marissa and Eric live in West Salem WI.

Bev Ranis and Karen Broadhead enjoyed a late summer trip to Alaska, traveling by air, train, bus, and cruise ship. Highlights were great museums in Fairbanks and Anchorage, a dogsled ride, the Sea Life Center in Seward, and being among the 30% who get to see Denali when the peak is not covered by clouds.

Joe Stekel won the door prize at the October meeting, compliments of the District 5 Board. Congratulations, Joe...enjoy your trip to Culvers!

TROLLS! In December, we hope to have more information about our financial participation in restoring the Trolls at the International Friendship Gardens.

Raffle: The Vennelag Lodge in Mt. Horeb, WI, is holding a raffle: $10 per ticket - first prize is one round-trip ticket to Northern Norway Sept 1-13, 2022 (or $4000 cash). There will be 4 additional cash prizes ranging from $100-$500. The winners will be drawn on May 17, 2022. Contact Steve Frame 608-575-6786 with questions or if interested in tickets.

A little in English...

Cleng Peerson – The Norwegian Emigration Father

After Norway had been rid of the Danish rule in 1814, Norwegian nationalism grew. Henrik Wergeland was “new Norway’s” first poet and he became a great symbol of Norwegian freedom. The growing freedom feeling also led to other effects. One of these was a large interest in emigration to America.

Cleng Peerson was born in Tysvær in 1782. Like many others who were interested in America, he was deeply religious. He belonged to the Quaker Church and in 1821 was sent to the state of New York to look into the possibility of creating a Norwegian colony. After 3 years he returned to Stavanger and advocated strongly to get a ship that could sail from Norway. Many within the Quaker Church in Stavanger were strongly convinced by Peerson and on July 4th, 1825, 52 Norwegians emigrated on the sloop “Restoration” from Stavanger. They arrived in New York on the 15th of October and the number was increased to 53. A newborn baby saw the first day’s light on the way over the Atlantic Ocean. The newspaper “New York Daily Adviser” characterized the shipmen as “an unusual sight.” The newspaper was interested in the old-fashioned clothes the Norwegians wore – fashion is not a concept that only belongs in the present.

Cleng Peerson led his fellow Quakers to Kendall Township by Lake Ontario where they were allocated land. But Peerson was an adventurous man and continued his travels through North America. On his voyage through the Midwest, he found the fertile Fox River Valley in Illinois. He then returned to his friends by Lake Ontario and persuaded them to move to Illinois. Odd Lovoll describes Cleng Peerson among other things as “Peer Gynt on the Prairie” – a description we can agree describes this adventurer. His ability to convince others was something he had plenty of! Peerson continued his traveling and died in Texas in 1865.

Cleng Peerson is rightly called “the Norwegian emigration father.” Not just because he organized the first joint Norwegian emigration. He also advocated that, in the end, they should settle in the Midwest – a place that would later become the main area of the great Norwegian emigration wave 50 years later. The first emigrant wrote home and told about a “beautiful and fertile land,” and therefore more Norwegians were informed of where they should go in America.

Litt på Norsk...

Cleng Peerson – Den Norske Utvandringens Far

Etter at Norge var blitt kvitt danske-åket i 1814, vokste den norske nasjonalfølelsen. Henrik Wergeland var det “Nye Norges” første dikter og han ble det store symbolet på den norske friheten. Den økende frihetsfølelsen ga seg også andre utslag. Ett av disse var større interesse for utvandring til Amerika.

Cleng Peerson var født i Tysvær i 1782. Som så mange andre som interesserte seg for Amerika, var han dypt religiøs. Han tilhørte kvekermenigheten og ble i 1821 sendt til staten New York for å se på mulighetene for å danne et norsk nybyggersamfunn. Etter 3 år returnerte han til Stavanger og agiterte sterkt for å få til et skip som kunne seile fra Norge. Mange innen kvekermenigheten i Stavanger ble overbevist av Peersons agitasjon og allerede den 4. juli 1825 dro 52 norske utvandrere med sluppen “Restorationen” fra Stavanger. De ankom New York 15. oktober og antallet var da steget til 53. En nyfødt baby så dagens lys på veien over Atlanterhavet. Avisen “New York Daily Advertiser” karakteriserte skipslasten som “et uvanlig syn.” Avisen var opptatt av de gammelmodige klærne nordmennene hadde på seg – moter er altså ikke et begrep som bare hører nåtiden til.

Cleng Peerson førte sine kveker venner til Kendall Township ved Ontariosjøen hvor de ble tildelt jord. Men Peerson var en eventyrlysten herre og fortsatte selv sine vandring gjennom Nord-Amerika. På sin vandring gjennom Midt-Vesten fant han den fruktbare Fox-Riverdalen i Illinois. Deretter returnerte han til sine venner ved Ontariosjøen og overtalte alle til å flytte til Illinois. Odd Lovoll beskriver Cleng Peerson bl.a. som “Peer Gynt på prærien” – en beskrivelse vi godt kan tenke oss passer på denne agitatorens. Evne til å overbevise andre hadde han tydeligvis i mangfold! Peerson fortsatte sine vandring og døde i Texas i 1865.

Cleng Peerson er med rette kalt “den norske utvandringens far.” Ikke bare organiserte han den første norske samlede utvandringen. Han sørget også for at de til slutt slo seg ned i Midt-Vesten – det som senere skulle bli hovedområdet for den store norske utvandringssbølgen 50 år senere. De første utvandrerne skrev hjem og fortalte om et “deilig og fruktbart land,” og dermed visste stadig flere nordmenn hvor de skulle dra i Amerika.
