Norwegian Folk High School Scholarship Overview

Application must be postmark by: March 15, 2022

How would you like to spend some time in Norway?

Immerse yourself in something you're passionate about, or try something new in Norway.

Overview:

The Helen Tronvold Adult Learner Scholarship was established in 2017 to support the Sons of Norway Foundation's objective of providing cross-cultural experiences for adult insurance members. Helen Tronvold remembered Sons of Norway Foundation with a special bequest in her will, which is the source of funding for this opportunity.

Who Can Apply:

- applicants, ages 17 – 26, who are current members of Sons of Norway;
- those who intend to take academic or cultural/heritage classes in Norway, and
- must provide proof of acceptance by a specific Norwegian Folk High School.

Criteria:

- complete applications
- write a short autobiography (150 words or less)
- write an essay of 500 words or less
- two letters of recommendation

To apply:

- You must have applied to the Sons of Norway Helen Tronvold Norwegian Folk High School through Sons of Norway International (www.sofn.com.)
- You must be accepted by a specific Norwegian Folk High School.
- You must complete the Norwegian Folk High School Scholarship application in your own handwriting regarding your interest in attending Norwegian Folk High School (www.folkehogskole.no). Answer the questions, using additional sheets of paper, if needed.
- You must be able to provide all necessary funds for transportation and any and all remaining costs for this Norwegian Folk High School Scholarship program.

Concordia Language Camp / Skogfjorden campers are no longer eligible for this scholarship, even if there are no applications for Norwegian Folk High School during a given year.

This scholarship is non-transferable.
